The announcement that has been so generally peralded throughout the country that an American company has again commenced importing this eclebrated Wine Tonle is a matter of no small importance, and will be hailed with joy by all those seeking a pure and invigorating tonic; also, those who need a pure, pleasant and refreshing stimulant will find in the El Vino Catalina, or Brown's Catalina Wine Tonie, what they want. It will be remembered that importations were made in 1866 of this noted brand, but in consequence of the high duty then demanded by this government, the enterprise ceas ed, to the regret of thousands who had learned Elvira Woodward, by abortion, has been its value. It is the oldest tonic in the world, and doubtless the most invigorating, the purest and best, and if importation continues at the rates low started, it will take its place in every fami-Our columns continue crowded, ly in this as well as in the old countries. Its merits will make it a household article, and be hope that every one who has ever used any Biters or common patent tonic, will at least try one bottle of the Catelina, and then decide for them selves whether they will use this tonic, prepared from the pure juice of the Catalina grape, with Calisaya and the spices of Ceylon, or a bitters made of common whiskey and bitter field herbs. This is an invaluable preparation for weakness and debility; it relieves morning languer and gives freshness and appetite, not followed by an implement reaction.
